Birds of a feather

I absolutely adore Sew and I especially liked the owl patchwork cushion cover from issue 43. I made one myself, then I decided to alter it slightly as I love chickens. I am now working on a cockerel version. Thanks so much for the fantastic ideas and please keep them coming.

Rachael Hunt, Cornwall
We love these quirky chicken cushions, it's lovely to see how you've made this design your own.

Need somewhere to stick your pins while Sewing? Jennybobs have these gorgeous Flower Pot People. Jennybobs

I've been making postcards! Blue and red ribbon on the edges depicting airmail. Combination of free motion embroidery and appliqué messages and stamped postmarks with fabric ink that's then heat set. Helly Jenkins

Upholstery love

I really enjoyed the Love Seat project by James Tickner in issue 44, it looks great. I'm not sure I'll actually be able to do it, but I'm adding it to my forthcoming projects list. Will you be running more upholstery features?

Emma Swaisland, Kingston

We love upholstery too and we'll have more projects in our dedicated home section throughout the year. We hope you also got the free Home Makeovers book from last issue, there was a great chair revamp in there.
